The screenshot displays the homepage of the 'THE BOILING CRAB' website. At the top, a navigation bar includes links for 'HOME', 'ABOUT', 'LOCATIONS', 'CREW', and 'FRANCHISE', along with social media icons. The main header features a large image of a group of people eating, with the text 'FEAST MODE' overlaid in large, yellow, block letters. Below this, a teal banner shows a person cooking at a grill. A red banner contains a paragraph about the brand's history and commitment to quality. The central section, titled 'TODAY'S CATCH', is divided into three columns: 'CHOOSE YOUR CATCH', 'ADD SOME SAUCE', and 'PICK THE SPICE'. Each column lists various food items. Below these columns is a large image of a seafood platter. To the right of the platter is a section titled 'EXTRAS' with a list of additional items. The bottom section, 'GO LOCAL!', lists locations in Southern and Northern California. The footer includes a copyright notice, the date '1/28/21 PM 1:09/2019', and the website URL 'https://theboilingcrab.com/'.

FEAST MODE

For some reason people think Bohannon is the best stories. Well, our Bohannon don't. While all the other staffers and customers were excited that the best stories and amazing new ideas were back home, they were all excited that the best of their best catch for the family. Oh, they were probably drinking too. We haven't been telling our story since 2004 but we do want to know what every day. It's not just a story, it's a story. Because the best stories aren't just told, they're lived and lived. Every day in our story and in our stories and stories. Because the best stories aren't just told, they're lived and lived.
